

Values lamp post banner trail

25 July to 1 September 2023

Pupils from a group of primary schools in Wokingham borough have created a set of banners from their artwork, promoting shared human values such as kindness, happiness, peace and tolerance.

10 banners have been installed around the University of Reading's Whiteknights Campus.

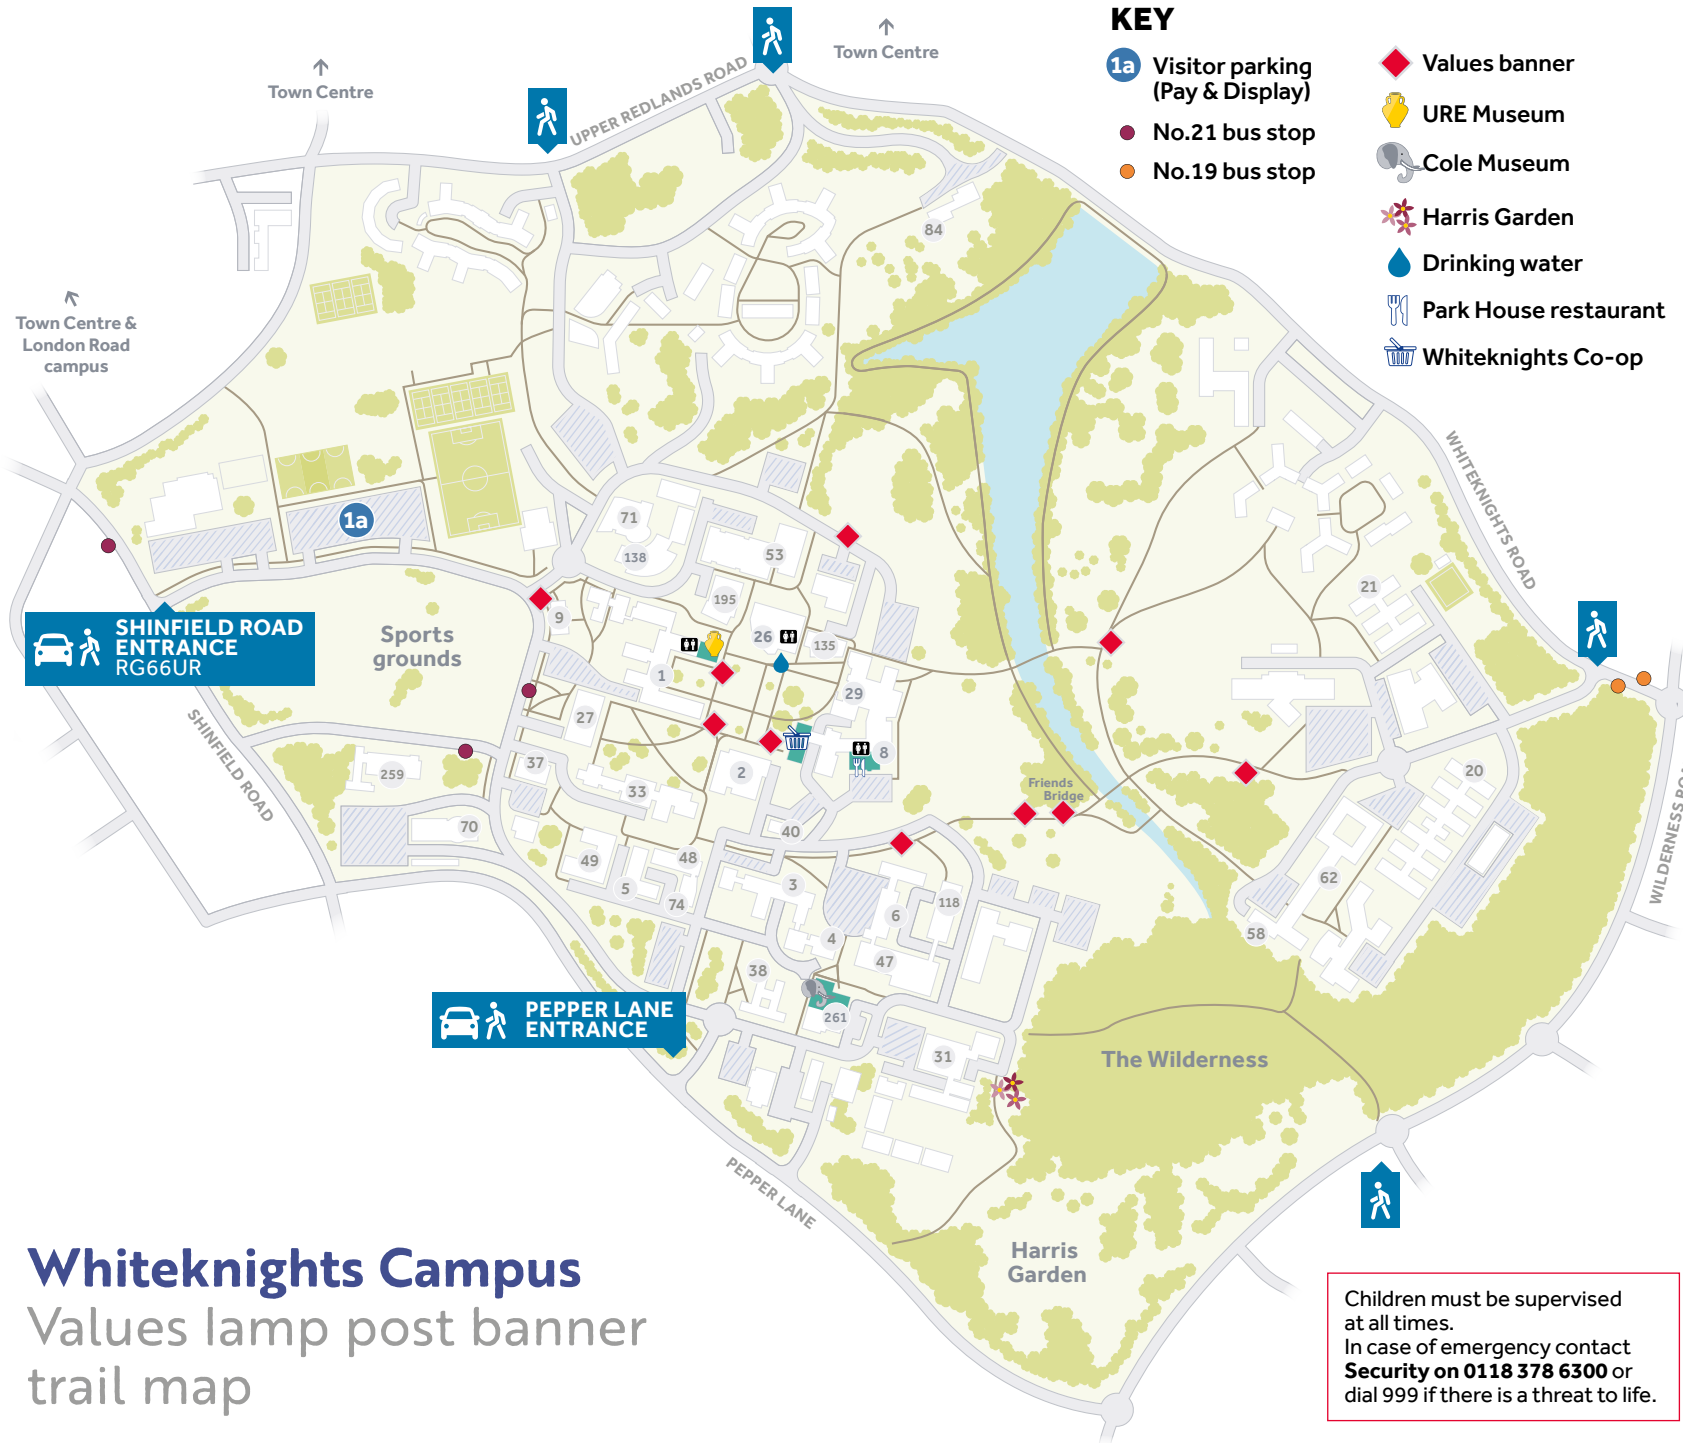

Can you find them all?

Use the map on page 2 to help you.

Getting to campus

Walking and cycling

There are several access points to campus for pedestrians and cyclists, making this the best way to travel. Many of the paths are shared use, please share space safely.

Bus

Whiteknights can be easily accessed via the Claret 21 bus (Central Whiteknights and Shinfield Road) or the Little Oranges 19a, 19b, 19c (Earley Gate). Check reading-buses.co.uk for more information.

Car

Visitor (Pay & Display) parking can be found in Carpark 1a (via the Shinfield Road or Pepper Lane entrance). Other carparks can generally be used outside of the working day (evenings and weekends). Please check the signage before leaving your car.

Facilities and places of interest

As well as hunting for banners, why not visit our campus museums and gardens, or stop for some food? Summer opening times may vary, please check the website before planning a visit.
